

FREE UPCOMING WEBINAR: CREATING AUTISM FRIENDLY LIBRARIES WITH AIDE CANADA

Date: Thursday, July 25 at 9-10am
Register by scanning the QR code
Open to all library workers

In this presentation, staff from AIDE Canada will provide insight into what it means to be autistic and how libraries can create safe and engaging environments for autistic young people. You will leave with free resources and actionable ideas for staff training, policies, and programs for libraries of all sizes and budgets.

This presentation is part of BC Summer Reading Club's ongoing commitment to accessibility. We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Province of British Columbia through the Ministry of Municipal Affairs, and their ongoing support for professional development opportunities for public library workers.
